VOL. XXXVIII — SONOMA, SONOMA COUNTY, CAL., AUG. 21, 1915 — NO. 5

PROCEEDINGS OF LOCAL CONCERN IN THE COURTS

P. Clements, proprietor of the Clements Cafe, in the vicinity of Fetters' Springs, will appear before Justice of the Peace Marvin T. Vaughan at Santa Rosa today, to answer to the charge of conducting a "blind pig."

The arrest was made by Officers Regan and Jack Murray, Friday night of last week. Clements was placed under $500 bail.

The county officials will have to take up the scattered threads and weave anew a web of evidence before the charge is to be placed with any degree of certainty for the burglarizing of th Ringressy cottage. As yet, there are no tangible clues which justifies further arrests.

The office of District Attorney Clarence Lea moved for the discharge from detinue of Jack Welch, there being litt'e if any evidence to connect him with the crime.

Mrs. E. Stillman, Mrs. Edwards and Earl King, who were taken into custody during the official search and charged with having opium and an outfit for the use of the drug in their possession, were also dismissed, Tuesday, on motion of the District Attorney's office owing to the lack of evidence to sustain the charge.

Carl Schellinger, who was held to answer before the Superior Court by Justice J. L. Small, for the passing to Mrs. Anna Acquistopace, in June last, a worthless check of $52, was found guilty and on Monday of this week was sentenced by Judge Denny to serve five years in the penitentiary at Folsom. Schellinger, it was shown, had a prison record of terms served in Los Angeles, San Francisco and San Mateo.

ADDITION TO LOCAL BUSINESS CIRCLES

Robert F. Abele, who arrived in Sonoma about a month ago, taking up with his wife residence in the Louis Breitenbach house, on Spain Street near Fourth Street East, will follow his craft—tining and plumbing—here. Mr. Abele is proficient in all kinds of sheet and metal work, and is also a finished electrician. Repairing is giving especial attention, and in this line Mr. Abele hopes to have an opportunity to prove his competency and build up a nice trade. The main Abele shop is on 3009 Mission Street, San Francisco, to which much of the proprietor's personal time will still be devoted.

"Richie" Rahwyler was up from San Francisco for a home visit Sunday.

EXTRAORDINARY PACK OF APPLES FOR SHIPMENT

A couple of popular and industrious girls achieved a record reaking pack of apples last week. An eight-hour day was spent at the work and the young ladies wrapped and packed one hundred and twenty-five boxes, each box containing four tiers or one hundred and forty-four apples to the box, making a grand total of seventeen thousand, eight hundred apples wrapped and packed by these active young ladies. Now, that is certainly going some! It seems well-nigh incredible, but it is an actual fact.

The apples--fine Gravensteins--were the product of the splendid orchard of O. R. Rufus. They were consigned to Jones & Pettigrew, San Francisco for shipment to Washington.

From Mr. Rufus, we learn that a satisfactory price was received for the apples. With this well-known Sonoma Valley orchardist, as with other growers, however, fruit conditions are not as good, in many instances, as in past seasons, owing to over production.

PAUL MOSNER ENTERS INTO REST

Tuesday of this week, while en route in a jitney to the Northwestern Pacific Railway depot at San Rafael, for the return trip to his home in El Verano, Paul Mosner, a respected resident, suddenly expired. The passing of Mr. Mosner followed a protracted illness of pulmonary tuberculosis.

The deceased was aged forty-nine years and a native of Hamburg, Germany, where it is believed a brother and sister survive him. For some years, he lived at El Verano, from where he moved into Sonoma, conducting during the years of his residence here the machine shop on Broadway, now owned by Busby & Coates.

Failing health induced Mr. Mosner to seek out-door occupations, and he engaged in the poultry-raising industry at El Verano. Death followed a few days' trip to the Fair.

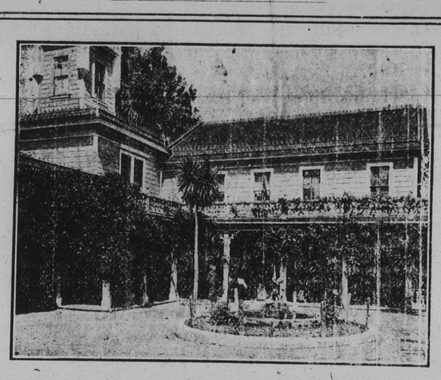
Paul Mosner was a worthy man of good character, and had many friends throughout the Sonoma Valley, and many assembled at his bier in the H. F. Bates Undertaking Parlors, from which the funeral was held Thursday morning, to pay to the departed that last tribute of respect.

The remains were laid away in Mountain Cemetery.

Geo Carpenter, Sr. Improving

The Sonoma Valley friends of George Carpenter, Jr., who had been critically ill, is well on the road to recovery, under the care of Dr. Irving C. Gobar.

HISTORIC SONOMA VALLEY LANDMARK IS SWEPT AWAY BY FIRE



Ivy-Clad Hotel Which Has Disappeared

Out of the ashes of the historic landmark which was swept to its destruction by fire will rise another substantial structure—modern, elegant and enduring—a monumnent to the colossal enterprise of Mr. and Mrs. Theodor Richards.

The burning of picturesque Agua Caliente Springs Saturday last was a bitter blow to Mr. and Mrs. Richards and their family. Woven in and out the ivy strands which covered the greater part of the adobe relic, around and about every building in this garden spot of Nature, the tendrils of a lasting affection clung. In connection with the destruction of the buildings made more valuable through sentimental attachment, Mr. and Mrs Richards have had to face the far heavier loss of $40,000's worth of property swept away.

Discussing the disaster with an Index-Tribune representative on Thursday afternoon, Mr. Richards informed us that the fire, which was discovered by his wife, started in the grass near the tank house, which caught, the flames spreading to laundry and kitchen adjoining. Efforts to control the conflagration were unavailing until the main part—hotel, dining-room and four cottages were consumed.

All of the postal supplies, including mail and money orders, were saved, as were also a large amount of the furnishings, the hundreds from every part of the valley who were speedily on the scene working "like Trojans."

"Although the insurance adjusters have yet to arrive on the scene," said Mr. Richards "we are ready for business—crippled, of course, but with about one hundred rooms left for the accommodation of guests. A temporary kitchen is already under construction, and we are providing our guests with the best of table service in our recently built Festival Hall. It is somewhat premature to attempt to try to state definitely our plans, but we shall rebuild as soon as possible."

The new Auditorium, which was most fortunately saved, is providing its regular nightly entertainments, with "the movies", other attractions, and dancing to music by Hansen's incomparable Ragtime Orchestra.

Tonight and tomorrow, Saturday and Sunday, there will be entertained at Agua Caliente Springs a large delegation of the Knights of Columbus—not the many hundreds for whom arrangements had been made, but enough to have "big doings" at the resort for the next two days and nights. No expense attached to these big times, either.

From September 4th to 6th, the League of the Cross Cadets, some six hundred strong, will be encamped at Agua Caliente Springs. The League will be accompanied by its famous military band.

Now, Sonoma Valley residents, is the time to extend the hand of sympathetic good-fellowship and an increased patronage to Mr. and Mrs. Richards, who throughout the years have contributed in no small measure to the progress of this valley, by helping every movement for the development of its resources.

Crowd to the doors for weeks to come the Agua Caliente Springs' Auditorium for no resort in the valley offers more enjoyment and there is no admission charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Richards wish to express their heartfelt thanks to every man, woman and child who labored so willingly and earnestly to save their property. A lasting debt of gratitude was thereby incurred.

THE BURNING OF MARBLE HALL

The handsome, untenanted resort known as Marble Hall was burned to the ground during the early hours of Wednesday morning.

The building, the property of Mrs. Emma Biagini, of San Francisco, was located between Boyes' and Verano Station, but very recently completed, and was constructed at a cost of about $30,000. It was of imposing appearance and beautiful interior finish.

Owing to the refusal of the Board of Supervisors to grant a liquor license for the conduct of a bar attached to the resort, the hotel had not been furnished.

The first report that the building was a total loss has since been contradicted by the statement that a $15,000 insurance was carried.

The strong odor of kerosene in the burning building leads to the theory that the fire was the work of an incendiary. On the other hand, painters had been at work in the interior, and the odor of burning oil could thus be well accounted for. The only person on the premises at the time was the nightwatchman who occupied a separate building.

THE SONOMA DRUM CORPS' BENEFIT AUGUST 27TH

This monster Benefit for the Sonoma Drum Corps takes place at the Agua Caliente Springs' Auditorium, and will represent the combined attractions of Boyes' Springs'. Theatre and the Agua Caliente Auditorium.

Amusement Manager Landers Stevens promptly came to the fore to lend his fine executive and theatrical ability to the drummers, and Theodor Richards willingly placed at their disposal his spacious Auditorium.

Will Helberg entered on his duties as chairman of the committee of arrangements with a zest quite infectious, and with his associates—Fred Hansen, James Modini, Leonard Thomas, Edward Peterson and Alfred Warriner—will speedily have details complete.

Steve Douglas, who returned on Thursday from an outing at Tahoe with the Indoor Yacht Club, and who is recognized as a wizard with the violin, will unite with Drummer Fred Hansen and the rest of the aggregation of the Boyes' and Caliente musicians in furnishing dance music par excellence.

Bear the date in mind everybody—Friday night of next week, August 27th, and be on hand to help swell the fund that is to enable the Sonoma Native Sons' Drum Corps make the showing desired at the celebration of Admission Day at the Exposition.

Admission: adults 25 cents and children 10 cents.

1916 MAXWELL DEMONSTRATOR

On Monday morning, W. F. Clewe drove the new Maxwell from San Francisco, arriving in Sonoma about eleven o'clock. To say the car met with his approval would be putting it mildly.

Mr. Clewe informed us that the price of the five-passenger would be $745, Sonoma, this being a reduction of $100 from last year's model. The car has also been considerably improved mechanically, having adopted such new features as have proven satisfactory by long tests and usage.

The lines of the new car are beautiful, being of the very latest "Yacht Line" type. Altogether, this car represents one of the best "buys" in the automobile market today. It certainly would be to any prospective purchaser's advantage to look this car over, before placing his order elsewhere.

RAPID SALES OF FORD MACHINES

The reliable agency of Busby & Coates is doing a "land office" business in selling Ford cars, and as a consequence, Ralph Busby has made several rapid transit visits to the metropolis during the fortnight. The latest sales reported were to S. Lydiord and G. Rouque, of Vineburg, and Thos. Baines, of El Verano.

MRS. GEO. FETTERS PURCHASES HUDSON

Leiser & McDevitt, the hustling proprietors of the Mission Garage, are congratulating themselves on having sold a splendid Hudson touring car. The machine was purchased by Mrs. George Fetters of the famed Sonoma Valley resort, Fetters' Hot Springs, and the delivery was made on Wednesday.

Off on a Hunt

A jolly party of Sonoma boys, comprising Theodore Keiser, Louis Picetti, Ed Peterson, Peter Perazzo and Harry Quartaroli, leave this afternoon for Fort Bragg, Mendocino County, for a week's deer hunt.

CONTRIBUTED NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

Vineburg

Mrs. August Figone and children, of San Francisco, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Batto this week.

Charles Campbell, a prominent business man and one of the base ball magnates of Vallejo, accompanied by H. E. Flaeger of the U. S. S. Maryland and J. W. Perry, were the guests of Howard Brown at Vineburg Inn on Tuesday last The gentlemen where on their way home from a hunting trip through Northern Sonoma and Lake counties and on the trip secured three fine buck deer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Lehrke and son Henry have just returned from a delightful vacation at the Fred Lehrke ranch, Bell Springs, Mendiceno County and are the guests at Vineburg Inn and Los Amigos. During their stay at the Springs Master Henry distinguished himself by bringing down two fine buck deer Pretty good work for a kid only twelve years old.

Between the many passengers alighting from the trains and the visitors by auto route, Vineburg was quite lively on Sunday last.

Howard Brown, manager of Vineburg Inn, transacted business in the metropolis on last Monday.

Superintendent James Stonier, of the Sunny Dale Orchards, has shipped eight straight car loads of bartlett pears to San Francisco and Santa Rosa this season up to date, also many car loads of other varieties of fruit.

Carl Dresel, accompanied by his sons Otto ond Bunker, are enjoying a hunting trip in Mendocino County All the gentlemen are expert nimrods and good rifle shots and we expect to report some good results.

Messrs Ballsberger and Schuhmann returned home from their visit to Eureka. They made the round trip on their bycycles. Some riding we think. Oh no, they wernt broke. they had twenty cents when they landed.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Batto and children, accompanied by Miss Jessie Hiser and William Dunn, motored to Sebastopol on Sunday last and visited the Apple Carnival and the different points of interest along the line.

Dr. O. L. Miller and family returned to their Oakland home on Sunday, after being guests at the Hyde Homestead for two weeks.

John Wadsworth has just completed shipping the fine crop of apples and pears from his orchard on the Hyde tract. Mr. Wadsworth is one of the pioneer orchard men of Sonoma Valley.

S. H. Ames of San Jose, assistant to station agent Grover Rubke of Vineburg, is quite popular and has made many friends in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hyde and daughter Miss Kathryne, of San Francisco, are the guests at the Hyde Homestead. Mr. Hyde has for many years held an official position with the San Francisco Gas Co.

Jim Small was a visitor on the Hyde tract on Wednesday last.

El Verano

Byron Weaver and Albert Rossi motored to Sebastopol Sunday, in Alberts new Maxwell car and while there they had the pleasure of shaking hands with Detective Harry Lubbeck, who is repssenting the Burns agency at the Apple Show.

Aleck Bardon and Andy Smierkase, of Schellville, were visitors here Sunday.

Among the many prominent visitors at Boyes Spring Sunday were Billy Hill, an old time Boyes Springs booster, but now located in San Francisco and Counsellor Frank Sprague of Sonoma.

Fiddler Frank Peebles of Caliente was in town Tuesday, shaking hands with the boys

There is a story going around that Louie Labre captured a species of the flying night hoss at the lonesome hour of two in the morn on a dreary wooded spot on the banks of Sonoma creek. As proof of this it is said the hoss is now on exhibition at Louie's popular resort and it refuses to take any nurishment.

There are many guests registered at the different hotels in El Verano and this season, no doubt, will be a long and prosperous one.

GREY WOLF.

Mr. and Mrs. Enrico Forni entertained a number of their friends on Sunday last at their pretty residence "Starlight Terrace" Ice cream and other refreshments were served. Mrs. Forni acted as hostess assisted by her charming daughter, Miss Helen.

Molasses beet pulp has now become an important factor in feeding dairy stock and therefore the firm of John Batto & Sons received a car load of three hundred sacks on Wednesday morning from Los Angles. The first car received in Sonoma Valley.

EASY JIM.

Dr. W. B. Hays was summoned to surgically attend Ah Man, Tuesday morning. The Chinese was preparing to start out with a companion to gather "the wash," and while in the act of mounting the wagon, in front of the laundry, was suddenly kicked by the horse. Ah Man's left leg was badly fractured, Dr. Hays reporting the break as severe. Ah Man has lots of friends about town who are sorry for the occurrence.

Frank Rose, our well known dairy man, transacted business in San Francisco on Wednesday

Mrs. E Steddom returned Tuesday evening after having spent a few days in the metropolis on business.

C. C Bilk, a well known real estate man of Woodacre, spent Wednesday at the Steiger home.

Tony Marcucci went to the Bay City Wednesday on business connected with his dairy.

On last Tuesday evening the White Shell Club enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. E. E Bennett at their attractive home. I should term the affair a progressive pea nut party, as a most interesting game of pea nuts was indulged in. Other games were also enjoyed and a neat sum was realized, this going toward the well-known club. The club is noted for its social affairs and its important business meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Landsborough had the pleasure Sunduy last of a number of callars.

Joe Keechler and family motored to Petaluma Sunday last and spent the day with relatives.

The Canning brothers of San Francisco, spent Sunday at the home of their folks on Broadway.

Fern Saylor was a week end visitor in San Francisco.

The Social Club of this section met at the home of Mrs Joe Koeboom on last Wednesday and the members are still talking of the good eats.

A car load of choice A no. 1 oat hay was shipped to San Francisco last week from the Jacobson ranch.

Many hands are busy just now cutting fruit at Eden Dale.

On Sunday last Jake Schumacker and family invited F. McGill and his wife for a joy ride. Well they certainly did ride some as they took in Napa, St. Helena, Rutherford, Calistoga and Santa Rosa and returned home with a clear conscience of not even killing a chicken.

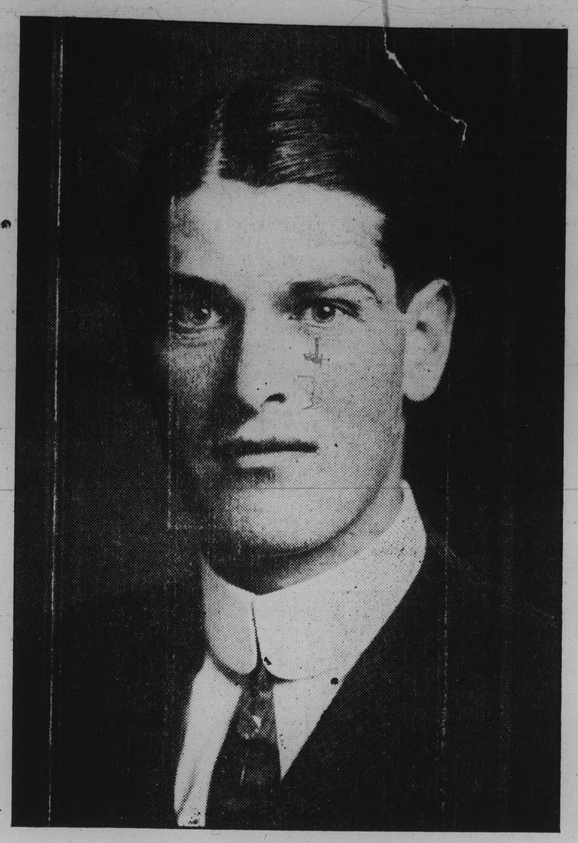
OBITUARY



The Late Walter Clarance Bonner

When the spirit of Walter Clarence Bonner winged its way from its mortal tenement back to its Creator, the head of his widowed mother was, indeed, bowed 'neath the rod of sorrow. Following so quickly the report of his critical illness, the announcement of his passing was a profound shock to the community and to the young man's friends throughout the State.

The illness which terminated fatally when life should have been the most hopeful and promising—ere it had reached its zenith—dated back to the boyhood of "Chip" (the name by which friends knew him best and of which he was very fond). Organic heart disease resulted from an acute attack of inflammatory rheumatism, giving to the life-start of a boy of inherent ambition, intellectual and strong athletic traits, a pitiful, pleading handicap. All too frequently were the warnings of Nature and physicians unheeded or forgotten during his associations with his fellows, until the organ of life was shattered and ceased its pulsations.

That journey from Bartlett Springs, from whence his devoted mother, Mrs. Grace Granice, his friends, Jack Poulson and George Leiser, and accompanying nurse, Mrs. Alice White of Lakeport, brought him by auto during the night hours of Friday of last week, was fraught with hope, so cheery and animated was "Chip." But early Saturday morning the presence of the Grim Reaper hovered on the threshold of the Granice home. Dr. W. B. Hays, who had been summoned, expended his thorough medical knowledge and skill to prolong the boyish life, but at midday, the sands of the life of Walter Bonner completed their course.

Walter Clarence Bonner was born in San Francisco, September 29th, twenty-three years ago. On completing his course of studies at the Mt. Tamalpais Military Academy, "Chip" was in the employ of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company as bookkeeper. After the death of his step-father, Editor H. H. Granice, "Chip" assumed the business management of the Index-Tribune, in which capacity he acted until the end.

Mrs. Granice was but a girl of seventeen when "Chip" was laid in her arms, and betwen mother and son existed a strong and intensely enduring bond of affection. No desire of the son remained ungratified by his tenderly devoted mother, whenever gratification was possible.

Walter Bonner is deeply mourned by a wide circle of friends for his was a warm, impulsive nature, capable of and holding strong, fine friendships. His many worthy traits and refined personality won the lasting regard of all who knew him.

The funeral was held from the residence of his mother, Monday afternoon, Rev. Edwin F. Brown, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, conducting the services, and paying fitting tribute to the beloved dead. Appropriate hymns were tenderly endered by a choir composed of Mrs. J. A. Kinsella, Mrs. Ralph Hotz, and Misses Meta Stofen and Helena Clewe. Mrs. F. T. Duhring accompanied the singers.

Jos. F. Ryan, Theo. Keiser, Jos. Andrieux, Wayne Bachelor, Jack Poulson and Harry Quartaroli served as pall-bearers.

The floral pieces were numerous and exquisitely beautiful, especially two which stood at the head of the casket—a broken wheel, inscribed "My Son," the other, "The Gate Ajar," was a tribute from Sonoma gentlemen friends.

The stricken mother had the remains of her son borne to San Francisco, where they were laid to rest Tuesday afternoon in Cypress Lawn Cemetery.

"There is no death;
What seems so is transition.
This life of mortal breath
Is but a suburb of the life elysian,
Whose portal we call death."

THE PEACE FLAG AND ITS APPEAL TO THE NATIONS

In the office of County Superintendent of Schools Miss Florence Barnes says the Press Democrat, is displayed the Peace Flag, designed by Julius Myron Alexander of Healdsburg

This is the explanatory note pinned on the flag and it is well worth while reading:

A PEACE FLAG

For the great humanitarian Peace movement, into which the heart and soul of the Nation is woven with ties of pity and love, there is no banner to represent the great onward movement. For an emblem to represent the cause and to appeal to the hearts of all, Julius Myron Alexander, of Healdsburg, California, has originated a symbolic design embodied in a flag to bear to all of earth its pleading message.

The white field, the ideals—love and purity; the four stars, one at each corner, the cardinal points of the compass, tell us of all the world; the rising sun, with its golden rays, stands for the dawn of peace; the white cross, Humette, signalizes Christianity and civilization; the Dove of Peace bears the olive branch, a message of safety.

O Nations of Earth! Make a flag of forgiving.
Make a flag of glory in loving and living;
Crush not our hearts with burdens of sorrow,
End the brief day with a Peace for the morrow,
A Peace to the land now red from the battle,
A Peace to the cannon and cannister's rattle.

The Index-Tribune suggests to its readers, those who on visiting Santa Rosa may have an opportunity to do so, to examine the emblem of Peace above deserbed. Aside from its significance, the flag is extremely beautiful, of rare and exquistte hand-wrought needlework.

The writer, a personal friend of Mr. Alexander's, has thought it regrettable that his wonderful conception in the way of a message of Peace, has not ere this been given at least State recognition. Were it not for the innate modesty of the gifted designer, it would certainly be in a fitting place of honor.

We suggest—nay, we ask that Secretary Edward Brown, who has been so commendably and successfully active in displaying to the best advantage at the Exposition the products of the Banner County, to arrange without delay a prominent position in connection with the Sonoma County Exhibit for this unmatchable banner message of Peace.

Morning Worship at 11 a. m.
Union Service at 8 p. m.

CHURCH—Notice that people do not go to church as they did in the past. Notice again that people never were more religiously inclined than they are now One part of the good people go to church and the other part are humanitarians and think the Church is not essential. The first try to keep up their attachment to God through God and Jesus, and the other part leaves God and Jesus out of their life, and try to live the way Jesus taught. Jesus founded a Church and still is its Head, and taught men to get into it with Him. Notice that the humanitarian has severed himself from his root; has cut off his connections with the power house; and is trying to be the proper thing without doing God's will or staying with Jesus the Savior of the human race. Jesus has taught the relation of the Church to Him under the figure of HIS BRIDE. Is the Bride a poor, sleepy woman that has taken too much for granted, and is the humanitarian a thorn in her side that would try to make her better by keeping away from her? One thing is sure, the Church ought to be no mere ornament for penance and prayer. The church must have faith and it must have works and the race of man must produce it. Jesus did not die in vain.

People who say they are as good out of the Church as in it, may be right, about themselves. Better would it be if they were where Jesus told them to be and the Church would do what Jesus told it to do. It would be wise to live in the way of service as did Jesus, before we think we are more virtuous than anyone. It will be more easy to be honored and true and kind and helpful when we live in the way of Jesus and put that way into politics and economics and business. We are so greedy to get the dollar before our neighbor can get it away from us, that we neglect our prayers, or maybe do even worse. We walk in a dazzling light of some enticing fancy until we cannot see our plain duty. Being good at the rate of travel in stage coach days will not do now, when our friends ride in auto cars.

The Church will get her gait by and by, but we need people and not memories. An engine is a burden until it gets up steam and then it helps. Maybe you have no taste for God, nor even thirst for the water of life. Get a hunger for God and you will hunt a church

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. LaTorres enjoyed a week-end visit from their son Robert, of San Francisco.

xx xx xx xx

R. J. (Bob) McKeown came up from San Francisco for a week-end visit with his friend, Dal Emparan.

xx xx xx xx

Miss Annie Wellman and Master Edwin spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mrs. G. R. Lowell.

xx xx xx xx

Mrs. Lulu V. Emparan departed for San Francisco, Sunday, with the intention of spending several weeks for the most part at the Exposition.

xx xx xx xx

Miss Florence Green is at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Green, during the week of vacation at Lowell High School, San Francisco.

xx xx xx xx

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Watt, Mrs. Pauline McMullin and Dr. W. B. Hays were among the many Sonoma Valley residents to visit the Apple Show last Sunday.

xx xx xx xx

Miss Nellie Peterson, the very accommodating and much-liked chief operator of the local telephone office, enjoyed a well-earned respite from office duties and a visit to the Exposition from Saturday to Monday.

xx xx xx xx

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church will hold a sale of aprons in connection with an appetizing Chicken Pie Dinner in the parlors of the Church on Thursday, September 2nd, at which time the ladies ask the patronage of the general public.

xx xx xx xx

City Trustee and Mrs. Charles McDevitt and family returned, Saturday night from a sojourn of two week's duration in the Bay City and Berkeley. Needless to add our popular city solon has a fund of interesting Exposition experiences to relate.

xx xx xx xx

The host of Sonoma friends of Mrs. Harry B. Shaw were delighted to greet her when she arrived with her children for a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. McGimsey. Mrs. Shaw and children leave for their home at Corcoran, Kings County, Wednesday.

xx xx xx xx

Bonny Thelma, the lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Rubke, ope'd her bright eyes on this big and wonderful world just twelve months ago, Saturday last, August 14th, and this first birthday anniversary was commemorated at the home of her wee and winsome cousin, Virginia Lowell, the baby daughter of Mr. and George D. Lowell. Dainty refreshments were served and a most enjoyable afternoon spent. Those present were: Rowena Haven, Sammie Haven, Preston Hotz, Alice and Barbara Knight, Maxine Hunter, Virginia Lowell and Thelma Rubke.

xx xx xx xx

Monday afternoon, Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Grace and their daughter, Miss Marie, who for a week had been guests at the home of Dr. Grace's cousin, Dr. A. M. Thomson, took their departure from Sonoma. Accompanied by Dr. and Mrs. Thomson, the visitors left by auto for San Francisco, where the entire party will spend about ten days visiting the Exposition, after which Dr. Grace his family leave for a trip to Los Angeles and other Southern California points of interest before starting on their homeward journey to Chillicothe, Ohio.

Dr. and Mrs. Grace and daughter were very entertained by their Sonoma friends, and were charmed with Valley of the Moon.

Miss Katherine Laurenzi, who for more than a fortnight had been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. A. Canepa, at Petaluma, returned to her home in this city, Monday evening. While away, this popular Sonoma girl was afforded the pleasure of a visit to the Exposition.

xx xx xx xx

Mrs. S. B. Lewis, accompanied by her father, C. W. White, and her little daughter, Miss Elizabeth, have been spending this week with Mrs. Lewis' sister, Mrs. C. Bainbridge, in Oakland. Our venerable and much-esteemed townsman, Mr. White, had been anticipating with keenest pleasure this visit to the World's Fair in the company of his daughters and interesting little granddaughter.

xx xx xx xx

Tuesday of this week, Emil Valente entered St. Mary's College, San Francisco, starting on a course of civil engineering. Before taking up his college studies, Emil spent the week viewing the Exposition. Emil is one the favorite boys in Sonoma's circle of young people, and also one of the brightest. While he will be missed, yet his friends are glad that he has availed himself of this splendid opportunity acquire a remunerative profession.

xx xx xx xx

Reports from Miss Anita Breitenbach, who for the past three weeks has been visiting at Crockett, Contra Costa County, bear the gratifying news that she is so far recovered in health as to be able to resume her position as bookkeeper in Duhring's. Miss Gertrude Breitenbach has filled her sister's place for the past two months. Her friends hope her three months' rest has resulted in the complete restoration to health of Miss Breitenbach.

xx xx xx xx

On Friday of last week, Mrs. Carrie Burlingame and cousin, Miss Elizabeth Pattee, were delightfully entertained for the day by Mr. and Mrs. Jack London, at the London Ranch. The guests enjoyed the interesting novelty of being pictured with their hosts in the Sonoms County Moving Pictures, the Santa Rosa representative of the enterprising feature spending part of the day photographing the noted author and his wife, their beautiful home and its picturesque surroundings. Some excellent pictures were taken of Mr. and Mrs. London and their guests on horseback, the mounted party of seven abreast being photograped moving down the incline from the house toward the lake, in which the ladies and gentlemen were "snapped" while swimming. Other views, equally good, were taken. Mr. and Mrs. London are in the enjoyment of excellent health and report their recent five months' visit in the Hawaiian Islands as most pleasurable.

xx xx xx xx

Mrs. Frederick T. Duhring will entertain St. Barbara's Guild on next Tuesday afternoon, at the Duhring home. The meeting is one of importance, and members are requested to make it a point to be present. Arrangements are to be perfected for the reception of Rev. Wm. Terrill Holt, who succeeds Rev. J. H. Oehlhoff as rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, and who enters on his Sonoma pastorate September 1st.

The ladies of St. Barbara's Guild will also actively interest themselves at this and snt sequent meetings from now until November 19th in preparing for their annual bazaar and entertainment, which is to be held on that date.

The announcement of last week stating that on November 19th would take place the Congregational Ladies' Aid Bazaar was a mistake owing to a confusion of dating on the part of the Union Hall management.

Joe McMullin returned, Tuesday afternoon, from a fortnight's vacation in San Francisco.

xx xx xx xx

Ralph Evans, local line manager of the California Telephone and Lighting Company, will return tomorrow. Ralph has been greatly missed by his circle of friends during his two weeks' vacation, and he'll be gladly welcomed home. Ralph has been dividing his time between Exposition sight-seeing and visiting his boyhood friends at Ukiah.

xx xx xx xx

Rev. T. M. Price addressed the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club at the social meeting of that organization held yesterday afternoon. "Blunders" was the subject of his discourse, and a good talk, quite naturally, was anticipated. Vocal solos were given by Sonoma's sweet singers, the Misses Nancy Bates and Emily Poppe. Mrs. L. S. Simmons was hostess of the afternoon.

xx xx xx xx

Mrs. Julius Poppe returned Saturday last from the Poppe Ranch—Bleitz Castle—above Glen Ellen, where a fortnight had been pleasantly spent. Mrs. Poppe was accompanied home by Mrs. J. A. Poppe, who had enjoyed a visit of ten days with her son and daughter-in-law. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Krueger (nee Miss Ruth Poppe) returned to their home in the Bay City, Thursday of last week, making the trip to and from the Poppe country home and the metropolis on their motorcycle.

xx xx xx xx

A demonstration of the daily work of the pupils of Miss Alta Rice was given for the edification of their parents, at her studio on Broadway, yesterday afternoon. Among those who participated in the programme were: Norma Jansen, Cecil Hunter, Golden Saylor, Irma Cliff, Nordon Bordsen, Everett Schumacher, Clara Stonier, Ellis Simmons, Arzola Alleman, Beth Lane Herschel Whitmore, Minnie and Portia Harrison, Sylvia Picetti, Emily Batto, Archie Andrews.

xx xx xx xx

Cecil, the clever little son of Mr. and Mrs. R B. Hunter, and a few of his friends, had occasion to realize that some boys just do have the best time ever on their eighth birthday. 'Cause Cecil had a party on his eighth anniversay—Thursday afternoon, and 'twill be a long time before the happy children who were Cecil's guests will forget that jolly afternoon. In the game contest, the first prize was won by Margaret Shaw and the second by Vesta Prestwood. Those invited were: Vesta Prestwood, Alethea kinner, Evelyn Peterson, Margaret Shaw, Frances Murphy, Vera Scott, Donald Prestwood, Herbert Tracy, Paul Robin, Charlie Cordill, Leland Adler, Cecil Hunter.

An event of interst in school circles, is the presentation of the silver cup to the winning debating team of the Sonoma Valley Union High School—Miss Gladys Simmons, Henry Waltz and Emery Ranker. The bestowal of the much-coveted trophy takes place at the semi-annual meeting of the Solano-Napa-Sonoma League, to be held in Santa Rosa in September. The membership is made up of a High School faculty and student representation of the Athletic and Debating Leagues.

Not many Sonomans are aware, we believe, that Rev. J. Henry Oehlhoff providing for a receptacle in the high school for the cup, by contributing for that purpose the silver collection of several dollars taken up at Trinity Episcopal Church, on the occasion of the delivery of the Baccalaureate Sermon. It was a nice and appreciated thought on the part of Rev. Oehlhoff. Accompanying the cup in the niche will be a picture of the prize-winning team of debaters.

Pay an Official Visit

Valley of the Moon Chapter, O. E. S., was paid an official visit, Thursday night, by Worthy Grand Matron Mrs. Minnie E. Seymour of Mill Valley, and Past Grand Worthy Matron Miss Lillian Forsyth of San Francisco. The object of the visit was the inspection by the grand officers of the work of the local Chapter, of which Miss Nettie McConochie, of El Verano, is Worthy Matron. A fine banquet was the conclusion of the
